Kindergarten News February 1, 2021

It was great to all be together last Friday. It was a wonderful celebration of us being at school on the 101st Day of Kindergarten.

This week I will finish with the Middle-of-the-Year benchmarks. We were already behind due to Longhorn Enrichment Day and Snow Day, then the 14 day quarantine happened. Now, I really feel behind. I hope to have your child's results by next Monday. At least that is my plan.

Your child is bringing home their Reading/Writing Companion Unit 5.
Please keep this book at home, it does not need to come back to school.
We were unable to finish it, due to quarantine. We have a lot of material to cover, so we are moving on.

Wednesday, February 10, will be Spring Pictures and Kindergarten Graduate portraits.

Our school will furnish the graduation cap and gowns for the Graduation portraits. If your child is a girl, please make sure she does not wear a large bow in her hair on this day. The graduation caps will not stay on with ponytails or bows. Your daughter's picture will turn out better, if they wear their hair down.

VALENTINES!!!

To celebrate this special day, each child will need to bring a Valentine card for each classmate. You will find a Valentine List on the back of this newsletter. Your child will need to write the first name of each classmate on the cards.

*If for some reason you are addressing your child's cards, please remember, kindergarten students do not read cursive handwriting! Your child will need to be able to match their cards to their friend's name.
Your child does not have to address all the cards at once. You may want to spread this activity over a couple of afternoons. Your child may bring the cards to school, as soon as they finish addressing them. Please make sure all cards are at school by Tuesday, February 9th. These cards do not have to be from a store. You and your child may get creative and make the cards. During our party each student will open the cards and glue them into their own Valentine book.

These Valentine cards will be placed in a decorated tissue box, so the box is not very big. It is big enough to hold the Valentine cards, but not any other treat your child might want to give their friends. If your child wants to give their friends a special Valentines; such as pencils, suckers, and/or candy, please send these on the day of the party, Feb.
12.

If you would like to send party treats for this special day, please let me know as soon as possible. Thank you!
